

Public Service Announcement

(Iqaluit, Nunavut) The City of Iqaluit would like to advise residents that city is suspending all municipal services until further notice, due to severe weather conditions.

Fire and Ambulance services will be provided unless it is deemed unsafe and/or impossible to do so, delays can be expected due to weather conditions.

Citizens are advised not to venture out in the community due to weather conditions.

For information updates, regarding the status of municipal services, please call the blizzard line at 979-5300.

For information contact:

Eva Michael, Communications Officer