

October 27th, 2021 – Iqaluit, Nunavut

The City would also like to remind residents to use caution when walking or driving, as many families and children will be out trick-or-treating. The City also encourages trick-or-treaters to include high visibility, reflective materials as part of their costumes.

For additional information during business hours, please contact:

A/Communications and Customer Service Manager
867-979-5619 | g.byrne@iqaluit.ca