Snowfall and Heavy Winds Warning – City Urges 72 Hour Water Preparedness - Potable Water Available

November 22, 2021 – Iqaluit, Nunavut

---

Environment Canada has issued a snowfall and heavy winds warning for Iqaluit. The City encourages all residents to ensure that they have enough water for a period of up to 72 hours. The Reverse Osmosis refill depots are open today, Monday November 22nd, from 11 am to 6 pm.

The City of Iqaluit would like to advise residents that additional treated, potable water from CAF Operation LENTUS is available at the following locations:

- AWG Parking Lot
- Abe Okpik Hall (indoors)
- Elder's Qammaq (indoors)

The depots will be open from 11am-6pm daily.

Water at the water filling depots is treated potable water that does not require boiling before consumption.
