Reminder: Helmet / Insurance / Registration / Licence

Plate Required For All Terrain Vehicles (ATVs)

April 5, 2022 – Iqaluit, Nunavut

The City would like to remind residents that insurance as well as registration and a licence plate issued from the Department of Motor Vehicles are required for anyone using an all-terrain vehicle (ATV) within city limits.

As per The Nunavut All Terrain Vehicles Act and City of Iqaluit Bylaw #894 the Traffic Safety Bylaw, an individual could receive a fine up to $575, and could also have their ATV seized if they are stopped and do not have valid insurance or $150 for not having valid registration.

If the ATV is seized, the owner would be responsible for any impoundment and storage fees.

As well, a reminder that, as per The Nunavut All Terrain Vehicles Act and Bylaw #894, helmets must be worn by anyone riding on an ATV, as well helmets are required to be worn as per Municipal Bylaw 894 within "all" All-Terrain, Utility-Terrain, Recreational Off Road Vehicles, whether or not the vehicle is equipped with an enclose cab structure.

Seatbelts are also mandatory where the ATV manufacturer provides a restraint system for the driver and passenger(s).

The City would like to thank residents for their support and understanding.
