Residents Invited to Town Hall Meeting, November 3, 2016

October 21, 2016 (Iqaluit, Nunavut) - After one-year of serving together as Iqaluit's City Council, Mayor Redfern and City Councillors would like to invite Iqaluit residents to a Town Hall meeting, where Councillors will provide an update on key projects, and residents can share their views, comments and concerns regarding City services, programs and policies.

WHERE: Frobisher Hotel, Koojesse South Room

WHEN: Thursday, November 3, 2016

TIME: 6 PM to 8 PM

The approximately two-hour session will consist of a presentation by Council members, followed by a question and answer session.

The City is encouraging all residents to use this opportunity to speak directly with Council members on issues that are important to them.
