

MEDIA RELEASE

Chantel Caza Named Miss Teen Nunavut

September 28, 2016 (Iqaluit, Nunavut) – The City of Iqaluit is pleased to announce that Iqaluit resident Chantel Caza has been crowned Miss Teen Nunavut at the Miss Teen Canada Globe Pageant, recently held in Toronto, Ontario.

"I would like to congratulate Chantel for being crowned Miss Teen Nunavut 2016," said Iqaluit Mayor Madeleine Redfern. "Chantel has demonstrated that with confidence, commitment and poise one can achieve goals and make positive contributions to our society."

13 year-old Chantel, who has spent the majority of her life in Iqaluit, started grade nine at the Inukshuk High School this past September. For a career, Chantel would like to study to become a veterinarian or lawyer. Her hobbies include reading, travelling, baking and cooking.

Founded in 2000, Miss Teen Canada Globe provides young adults with an opportunity to become a role model in their country.

-30-

For additional information, please contact:

Andrea Spitzer
Communications
City of Iqaluit
Email: A.Spitzer@city.iqaluit.nu.ca

